Dear BBNGians,

Human beings stay in groups. The society, which has similar thoughts, similar aims, logically bonds faster and grows faster. This rule applies to Brahmins too. Parivartan is BBNG's flagship programme, which brings brahmins together to grow globally in social, financial, cultural aspects. It leads the Brahmin society towards entrepreneurship. Parivartan word itself shows reform. Brahmins across the globe come together and help each other grow.

BBNG is on the rapid growth path. New chapters in new regions are getting started, like Jagaon, Nagpur, Indore, apart from Mumbai, Pune, Nasik, Western Maharashtra, etc. Many of them will attend Parivartan 2024 in Nasik on the 4th of February. This will give them a wider picture of the Entrepreneur society.

The mission of Samruddha Brahman, Samartha Brahmhan, Sampanna Brahman will get achieved through this.

BBNG At A Glance will be there and, as always, document this journey.

Regards,
Pallavi Gadgil

It's a great and rear opportunity for networking which should be the need for each entrepreneur to become successful one needs rich connects and contacts which is the true asset for each entrepreneur. Money cannot be termed as asset for any businessmen, it can be generated through financial institutions but contacts need to be generated through networking and nurtured as well.

Expect to gain knowledge from conferences/events for personal as well for organizational growth, new tools for your kit. You will hear multiple speakers who will bring a different perspective to the conference core message.

Set your goals for the conference

Focus on growing your professional network

BBNG has been organizing such yearly conferences and events like Exhibitions from 2016, it started from Nashik then Dombivli, Nashik again, Thane, Poona and Dombivli again. Our registered trade mark for conference is PARIVARTAN

Theme of the conference changes every time, Like Change is constant, Transformation is happening, Vichar, Vikas Vyavhar. The theme it self becomes a teaser and denotes what is engulfed in the conference. These conferences were Hosted by few chapters like Nashik, Dombivli, Thane and then by regions Pune and Mumbai.

This opportunity was given to chapters/regions who had core strength in terms of members count had the willingness to execute it in professional way. The agenda of such conferences by BBNG has been to give strength to such chapters/ regions, it's a big opportunity to brand the chapter/regions and the organization at large. Generation of funds for the organization in line with its mission and vision is not a hidden agenda.

It has been observed due to publicity during such conferences through print media, electronic media, social media can be through banners and big hoardings in the host city the organisation reaches to nook and corner leading to participation and their by conversion into subscribed members . On any networking forum head count matters which generates leads and references, one member joins does add probability of leads and references in fact it creates possibility of exponential leads and references.

There are lot many success stories from the conferences, members like Kishore Mulay, Vasant Gadre, non member Mr. Raje have received huge business from Ashoka Buildcon, B2B is always a USP of each conference in Parivartan 2023, Deals of 3.5 cr were lined up, as well in new initiative Udyam Kaushal which is for start ups funding to the tune of 1 cr. was made available in stages. Many participants under the initiative only joined with a motive to get mentored from the experts in the industry.

BBNG is the only brahmin community business organisation which has been organising such conferences for consecutive seven years except for two years during pandemic, We recognise the giants, HNIs, and those businessmen doing CSR activity in our flagship of UDYAM KAUSTUBH award function which gives lot of inspiration and energy to the participants, In life and business everything cannot be counted in terms of money there are tangible and lot of intangible benefits from such networking conferences.

BOD calls for probable takers for the conference during BOD meeting and after patient hearing decides who is best eligible to take the baton in hand accordingly baton passing is the last session in each conference. This time for 2024 it has been taken up by Nashik region. We as a organisation wish them all the best assuring of all the support from various regions.

Ultimately it is said Your network is your networth and you are not working if you are not networking and this the sole purpose of BBNG conference and events.

HOT SEAT

An initiative by Sinhagad Chapter

Your are in hot seat the chapter head announces.

The candidate walks into an isolated seat opposite other members who are attending the physical meeting. These are his own chapter fellow members playing a different role today.

Opposite members divided into advisors and critics groups. All of them are required ...his business is now going to be scrutinized through different thought lenses.....These members present are networkers and are directly or indirectly his business/ sales promoters, possible customers or maybe even investors.

The hot seat candidate briefs his business verbally in about 3-4 minutes and now gets ready to accept business questions from the crowd.
Anyone can askget set go..

The members opposite him get him out of his comfort zone within minutes by asking unexpected questions.
At the same time he going through a realization, by opening of several thoughts to unforeseen areas in his business....

Many times small business may lack exposure as they don't have a team or an advisory board. The solo entrepreneur is under a feeling that what he is doing is best.....which may be far from reality.

This 20 min exercise may help break his several presumptions. He is fired with ongoing questions on his business be it vision, finance, team, sales, branding, present clients, present challenges and even his ASKS. all happening for about 15 -20 min.

The activity slowly gets into realization for his business matrix - strengths, weakness, opportunities and Threats. Within this 20 minute activity he/she is more confident and ready to step into a new thought process for working his weakness into strengths as well realizing opportunities and threats in his markets.

The advisors opposite are ready to have 121 with for further consultation....development on thought process practically.....and almost no cost. He scales up on thoughts and business and thanks BBNG for offering this platform of realization.

On this platform the host showcases the office place, narrates his / her journey as an entrepreneur, displays the tools and props used, and of course mentions the specific asks. Till now Warje Chapter's "Chai Pe Charcha" holds a record by sharing maximum referrals in which the success ratio is considerably high.

Parivartan 2023,in Dombivli is in full swing. It is awards and recognition time. Suddenly the entire auditorium erupts in thunderous applause as a popular name is called out for BBNGian of the Year. Mr Harish Kulkarni, of Pune's Deccan chapter climbs up the steps to receive his award to a standing ovation. When we ask him about his shy smile when receiving the award, he says he hasn't done much to deserve it.

In a nutshell, this is Harish Sir for you. The epitome of humility, inspite of many great achievements. To know more about him, BBNG AT A GLANCE decided to interview him.

Pallavi Gadgil (Team BBNG) : Harish sir, please tell us how your journey in business started.

HK : I graduated as a Civil Engineer from MIT, Pune, in 1992, and like everyone, did a job for 6 years. But I wasn't happy. I come from a business family, my father and my brothers all were in business. That business family background pushed me towards taking independent projects. My first project was a bungalow I constructed in Pune's Mahatma Society. This delighted customer is with me even after 28 years and still gives me business. My customers are my biggest brand ambassadors. Creating a bond with the customer, fully satisfying the customer's needs, and focusing on quality work is the key which I have always followed. It leaves me with less margin sometimes, but the business which is generated from that is of high value.

PG : So your work is your advertisement

HK : Yes, you can say that.

PG : Ok, please continue with your journey.

HK : Yes. One project, in the initial years was Amby Valley. I built 13 bungalows : approx value of 8.5 Crores. All these customers were Gujaratis. And these customers taught me a lot. They always support small entrepreneurs from their society. They give their business in their community. I saw that and I realised the importance of community bonding. And hence I started this applying in my business.

PG : Ok. Sir, can we say that this was the start of entering Giver's mode?

HK : Yes... you can say that. I have learned this from my Gujarati customers. Gujarati samaj. That's how I started passing more and more references to Brahmin samaj.

PG : We do understand your passion as a Giver. But sir, why should we be a Giver?

HK : If we have a passion to grow, then definitely we need a team. If the team grows, we grow. It's as simple as that. When I was in exapansion mode, I and Rishikesh Yadav established a company called Impact in 2008. Through Impact we concentrated on industrial work such as CMAbhavan, Gandhi bhavan, Aniket packaging, Kishor pumps. Kishor pump in Palus, Phaltan, Chakan, and then Aundh. Both of us focused on quality and fully satisfying customers helped us retain all main customers. Again and again these strong ambassadors gave us recurring projects. We were growing, getting good referrals and thus needed good vendors, good partners to execute the projects. I always wanted to have good Brahmin vendors. And actually that's how I came to BBNG.

PG : I was about to ask you that how you became a BBNG member.

HK : Finding Brahmin connects is my passion. Once I saw an advertisement on Facebook about joining BBNG. I saw Shripad sir's post and by calling current regional director of Pune region Anand Chitale, I joined BBNG in covid. As soon as I joined BBNG, I started connecting with members, understanding their capacities, and giving them work. I have enjoyed watching them grow with me.

PG : So you have followed the basics of networking?

HK : Yes I did. I did one to ones. I tried to find partners for Impact. In our construction line, the electric side, waterproofing side, construction material, fabrication are aligned jobs. I found them all at BBNG. They are all excellent vendors for Impact. As a business person I believe that finding good vendors, creating good bond between vendors and business owners, motivating vendors and making them successful is the key towards successful and sustainable growth in business. Also giving business to Brahmins through BBNG is the base of empowering our society, and our samaj . To make Brahmin samaj Samarth, Samruddha and Sampanna are not just words in the oath.

PG : So basically Harish sir, you believe in and live our oath. And that's why you have become BBNGian of the year. But sir, sometimes we do hear of referrals not resulting in much business. How come your referrals always do?

HK : Actually, I don't do anything special. I just give the referral in good faith

PG : Sir can you give example of any referral?

HK : Sure. When in our one project we needed fabrication help, our member in fabrication could complete 20% requirement. I was aware of this. But I strongly felt, if he gets opportunity, he will give a quality product and service. He will get more and more exposure of big projects. His quality will give me value addition. So I gave him the referral , I closely coordinated between user customer and fabricator. And that's how our project became successful. So ultimately my team became successful.

PG : To keep growing every BBNGian should have strong connects like you sir. This is the journey which may lead to our motto becoming a reality. Do you think BBNG should do anything more?

HK : Yes, I strongly feel that to grow more BBNG has to take steps of cloud funding initially with banks or pata Sanstha.

* I do strongly feel that we should get the eminent entrepreneurs from Brahmin samaj to be associated with BBNG and have good bonding with them which might include Garware, Kirloskar, Dandekar from Camlin who can give business to hundreds of business persons in BBNG.

* I also feel that we should be connected with our brothers and sisters, families. They should be the strong backbone of us in any circumstances.

* And last but not the least Every member should bring at least five members to BBNG to grow wisely.

PG : Thank you Sir. I am sure your thoughts will motivate our members. Many congratulations again for BBNGian of the year.

Harish sir keeps in mind 3 simple steps....

1. He himself believes that everyone needs backing. We should work as ...main hoon Na...for others. That's the backing support.
2. He ensures he gets 10% to 15% profit in any project, and distributes 85% value of the order to his vendors. He makes sure these are Brahmins. Lessons from the Gujaratis.
3. If our vendor partner becomes successful then we also become successful.

We can also try to follow these three important steps of hand holding special giver model which makes Harish sir successful .
